

The editors of the Catalan Review are pleased to announce the first Prize for Best Article published in the journal. The prize will be given biennially to the most innovative and high-quality original research paper appearing in the journal over a two-year span. For the current cycle, articles published in issues 36 (2022) and 37 (2023) will be considered. The prize will be awarded at the 19th North American Catalan Studies Colloquium in Minneapolis, MN from April 18th-21st, 2024.

Prize: a certificate, $400 USD, and an announcement on the North American Catalan Society webpage with a link to the article.

Guidelines:

- a. All articles published in the Catalan Review will be considered automatically without the author being required to submit a nomination request.
- b. A committee composed of members of the NACS will select the awardee.
- c. If the committee is unsatisfied with the pool of articles, the prize will be left unawarded for that cycle.
