STATES OF HOSPITALITY

19th International Colloquium of the North American Catalan Society

April 18-20, 2024

Founded in 1978, the Northamerican Catalan Society (NACS) is a professional association of scholars, students, and people with a general interest in any aspect of Catalan culture (literature, linguistics, film, visual and performing arts, history, and philosophy, among other disciplines). The Northamerican Catalan

Society is committed to advancing the study of Catalan language and culture in the Northamerican academy. It seeks to foster greater visibility for, and dissemination of, scholarship in the field of Catalan Studies. It serves as a central point of reference and a public voice for a network of scholars in this field.

To this end, NACS holds biennial colloquia, occasional smaller symposia, and publishes Catalan Review: International Journal of Catalan Culture.
